PRIVACY NOTICE and GENERAL DATA PROTECTION REGULATION (GDPR)

How we use pupil information

Why do we collect and use pupil information and Legal Basis for Using Information

We collect and use pupil information under section 537A of the Education Act 1996, and section 83 of the Children Act 1989. We also comply with Article 6(1)(c) and Article 9(2)(b) of the General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR).

We use the pupil data:

- As part of our admissions process
- To support pupil teaching and learning
- To monitor and report on pupil progress to provide appropriate pastoral care
- To assess the quality of our services
- To comply with the law regarding data sharing
- To access our school meals, payments and school communication system

Categories of pupil information that we collect, hold and share include:

- Personal information (such as name, date of birth, unique pupil number and contact details)
- Characteristics (such as ethnicity, language, nationality, country of birth and free school meal eligibility)
- Attendance information (such as sessions attended, number of absences and absence reasons)
- National curriculum assessment results, special educational needs information, relevant medical information

Collecting pupil information

Whilst the majority of pupil information you provide to us is mandatory, some of it is provided to us on a voluntary basis. In order to comply with the General Data Protection Regulation, we will inform you whether you are required to provide certain pupil information to us, or if you have a choice in this.

Storing pupil information

Marshfield Primary School keep information about you/your child on computer systems and also sometimes on paper.

We hold your education records securely (computerised and paper) in accordance with guidance issued by the Local Authority regarding document retention i.e. to comply with legal requirements e.g. date of birth plus 25 years for prime documents linked to safeguarding, SEN, Educational Psychology, School

Admissions, EWS and 7 years for PLASC counts, class counts, SEN registers, School Action Plans, GEMS intervention referrals, admissions reports, school meals reports etc. after which they are safely destroyed.

Access to the school's IT and Data Systems is restricted to authorised individuals only and is underpinned and protected by our E- Safety Policy and Acceptable Usage Policies. Access is logged and routinely monitored to protect users and the integrity and security of systems and data.

Marshfield Primary School adheres to the following retention periods for computer held personal data:

Pupil homedives and mailboxes are retained for a period of 1 calendar year.

Staff homedives and mailboxes are retained for a period of 5 calendar years.

School Library Management System – records retained for the duration of a pupils time in school System and web filter logs are retained for a period of 1 calendar year with the exception of print logs which are held for a period of 1 calendar year and 1 month.

Phone records/messages are retained for a period of 3 months.

We have a third party arrangement with a catering partner to access information for school meal purposes. This information is held on a computerised system and is accessed by the catering staff but not shared. Basic pupil information is retained on our SIMS system (School Management Information System) and retained for a period of 25 years.

Where data resides on third party systems e.g. Office 365, HWB, contracts exist to ensure data security, integrity and retention periods match legislation with Marshfield Primary School's in house systems.

All system backups are encrypted and are held in multiple, physically secure locations as part of the school's disaster recovery plan.

There are strict controls on who can see your information. We will not share your data if you have advised us that you do not want it shared unless it is the only way we can make sure you stay safe and healthy, are legally required to do so or the data is required for operational purposes.

Paper records are held in lockable cabinets. Control to areas where records are stored is restricted – pupils and visitors are not permitted to access any such area unless required and under the supervision of a staff member.

Who do we share pupil information with?

We routinely share pupil information with:

- Other Schools that pupils attend after leaving us
- Our local authority (Newport City Council) and the Education Achievement Service (EAS)
- Welsh Assembly Government

We do not share information about our pupils with anyone without consent unless the law and our policies allow us to do so.

We share pupils' data with the Welsh Assembly Government on a statutory basis. This data sharing underpins school funding and educational attainment policy and monitoring.

To find out more about the data collection requirements placed on us by the Welsh Assembly Government (for example; PLASC and post16 data, go to <http://gov.wales/topics/educationandskills/schoolshome/schooldata>

The school will, on pupil entry into school, require you to fill out individual Data Collection Sheets with you, and we require you to update us whenever these details change in order to ensure that our records are accurate and up to date.

CCTV STATEMENT

CCTV is installed at the school to record site intruders. Cameras are installed to verify the identity of persons accessing the school site.

A register itemizing each CCTV and camera, the intended viewing area and the reason for the camera is held at the school.

The purpose for CCTV presence is to record intruders to the site.

The cameras do not record during the school day.

As the requirement for the data captured on the CCTV system is short term, data is stored for a period of seven days only.

Requests for Information

All recorded information held by the School may be subject to requests under the Freedom of Information Act 2000, and the General Data Protection Regulations. If you would like to submit a Freedom of Information / Subject Access Request, you can e-mail us here. Subject Access Requests will be dealt with within one month (including weekends) of the date of receipt by the school. Please note that no charge is made for this information. Requests should be marked for the attention of Claire Dixon and e-mailed to;
